

Welcome to the NOAA Central Library

Visiting and Using the Library

NOAA Central Library

- Located on the Silver Spring Campus (SSMC 3) 2nd Floor
- Open from 8:30 am-4:30pm, Monday-Friday
- Serves all NOAA employees located in Silver Spring, Suitland, and the Hoover Building in downtown Washington, DC.
- Also serves patrons who work in regional offices across the country that are not served by another NOAA library.

Who is eligible to use the library?

- NOAA employees and contractors
(onsite and off)
 - Must register
 - Contractor form
- General public (FDLP library)
- Larger academic research community

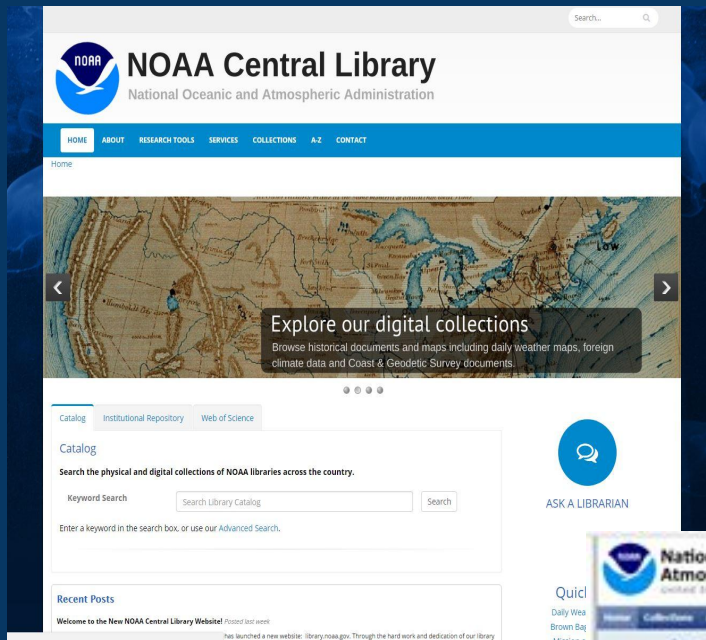

Library Holdings

- Journals
- Books
- NOAA publications
- Videos
- Images
- Microfilm/microfiche
- Maps
- Government documents
- Rare Books and Archival Material

Accessing Materials

- Catalog
- Journal databases
- Institutional Repository

Services

- Ask-A-Librarian
- Interlibrary Loan \(ILL\)
- Author services
 - DOIs
 - Bibliometrics
 - ORCID/Researcher IDs
- Library instruction
- Brown Bag Seminars

Inter-library Loan

- Get articles and books not held by the library
- Submit requests: interlibrary.loan@noaa.gov or online form
- 3-4 days for articles; up to 2 weeks for books

Questions?

NOAA Central Library
library.reference@noaa.gov
301-713-2600 ext. 157